An Ordinall of Alchimy:

A Project from Mildred's Lane organized by Mark Dion and Robert Williams.

with

Matt Bettine - Joseph G. Cruz - Kathryn Cornelius - Gabriella D'Italia - Scott Jarrett

Aislinn Pentecost-Farren - John Wanzel - Laura E Wertheim - Bryan Wilson

This $999 project from Cabinet magazine rests on the description and referencing of seven processes in practical alchemy (Calcination, Fixation, Solution, Distillation, Sublimation, Separation, and Projection) which looks to Elias Ashmole's Theatrum Chemicum Britannicum of 1652- itself a collection or miscellany, and which informs the Alchemy Shack Project at Mildred's Lane. Amongst the famous alchemical treatise in that work, is Norton's Ordinall of Alchimy – itself a list, or taxonomy in verse of these practical processes and principles. This acknowledges the great project of alchemy as a means to enlightenment, and is mirrored in the process of the $999 project as the fellows investigated and interpreted the terminology of the seven doors of alchimy in their discourse and rationale for purchasing items via eBay.
