To Promote or not to promote Fundamental British values

Problems encountered when researching British Values, Extremism, radicalisation in schools/ educational settings

Problems brought to light by research on Fundamental British values

- ▶ Politicisation of standards
- ▶ Clarity about faith and/or role of RE in imparting values
- ▶ Teacher difficulty in identifying 'Britishness' in values.
- ▶ Confusion about the professional role of the teacher
- ▶ Teacher inability to engage with these issues

To Promote or not to promote Fundamental British values

1. What are FBV and why have English teachers been asked to promote them?
2. Our research shows that 'promoting FBV' is a politicisation of the curriculum and teaching standards
3. We consider this is problematic
4. Proposed solutions
